Llexandria Gazette

THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 7.

FASHIONABLE SHOES .- No lady's toilet is complete without shoes of good quality and perfect fit. It is not absolutely necessary they should be of the finest material, but they should IN ORDER TO REDUCE STOCK, WE be of the best of their kind. Nothing looks worse than to see a fine dress and ill-fitting shoes, or shoes run down at the heels, rubbed out at the toes and minus half their normal quantity of buttons. For full dress and carriage wear the "Pompadour" or high French heel is worn, the soles light and single, with the uppers in the buttoned style. The Hapgood Spanish arch instep boot is one of the most beautiful styles and introduces this season novelties in make and out. They fit the foot "like a glove," which means, they fit the collective toes, the joints of these toes and the ball of the foot setting approxy under the arch of the infoot, setting snugly under the arch of the instep, button neatly over the ankle joint and support as well as protect this useful pedal extremity. Ladies can wear a full size smaller in this kind of shoe with ease and comfort, while a homely, and, may be added, almost a deformed, foot can be made to look handsome in these high instep boots. Hence their popularity. Slippers are shown in a variety of pretty styles of this make, and the Newport and Oxford ties are too popular ever to lose favor. The materials in favor for the walking boot are Indian goat, French kid and patent leather, all three of which are used for foxiogs, while all the finely woven fabrics in use for dresses supply the uppers. Really the most beautiful shoe shown this season is in this style, with silk matelasse uppers, patent leather vamps and medium welt sole, yellow stitched. Indian goat in connection with matelasse make a desirable boot for ordinary walking, and armure silk or black satin, in combination with French kid, make an elegant boot for carriage or the promenade.
